

Academic Integrity Policy Violations Committee

Per RES 212233, CSUB Undergraduate Academic Integrity Policy, page 5, "Decisions regarding penalties for repeated violations shall be determined by the Student Conduct Officer after conferring with a committee composed primarily of tenured faculty member."

Function: The Academic Integrity Policy Violations Committee is composed primarily of tenured faculty members. In cases of repeat violations of the academic integrity policy, the Dean of Students, or other designated Student Conduct Officer, consults with this committee about penalties. This committee works with the Dean of Students, ASI, and a SSP advisor from Student Affairs. The Dean of Students has decision-making responsibility. Appointments are made by the Senate Executive Committee (EC).
